Market Stats for the Shuswap—Kevin Campbell Realtor, Century 21

We have a lot happening in the real estate market lately so let's get right at it. In our board area (Revelstoke to Peachland) with the strong market that we have been experiencing, prices have been on the rise. Specifically here in the Shuswap / Revelstoke Zone (Revelstoke to Chase) the overall average prices have increased month over month with an average increase of 3.75% YTD in July, 4.26% YTD in August and 6.08% YTD in September, giving an average price increase over the past 3 months of 4.63%. The number of sales for the same period has also increased from last year. In July we are up 56.64%, in August 44.09% and then 60.53% in September. However, on a year to date look at things the number of sales are only up 5.94% due to the slow start in the spring with the first wave of Covid.

The overall amount of inventory is down right now at -13.60% YTD even though there were more new listing this September as compared to the same month last year at 49.63%. With the lack of inventory right now, some buyers are scrambling to find a place before winter hits and the inventory even becomes lower. There are still many buyers out there looking right now with the record setting low interest rate the banks are offering.

It's time to ask yourself #AreYouIN?

Justin Trudeau walks into a Royal Bank to cash a cheque. As he approaches the cashier he says, "Good morning, Ma'am, could you please cash this cheque for me?"
Cashier: "It would be my pleasure sir. Could you please show me your ID?"
Trudeau: "Truthfully, I did not bring my ID with me as I didn't think there was any need to. I am Justin Trudeau, the leader of the Liberal Party of Canada!!!!"
Cashier: "Yes sir, I know who you are, but with all the regulations and monitoring of the banks because of impostors and forgers and requirements of the CIDC legislation, etc., I must insist on seeing ID."
Trudeau: "Just ask anyone here at the bank who I am and they will tell you. Everybody knows who I am."
Cashier: "I am sorry, Mr. Trudeau, but these are the bank rules and I must follow them."
Trudeau:" Mon dieu. I am urging you, please, to cash this cheque."
Cashier: "Look Mr. Trudeau , here is an example of what we can do. One day, Tiger Woods came into the bank without ID. To prove he was Tiger Woods he pulled out his putter and made a beautiful shot across the bank into a cup. With that shot we knew him to be Tiger Woods and cashed his cheque.
Another time, Andre Agassi came in without ID. He pulled out his tennis racket and made a fabulous shot whereas the tennis ball landed in my cup. With that shot we cashed his cheque.
So, Mr. Trudeau, what can you do to prove that it is you, and only you?"
Trudeau stands there thinking, and thinking, and finally says, "Honestly, my mind is a total blank, I have absolutely no idea what to do, I don't have a clue."
Cashier: "Will that be large or small bills, Mr. Trudeau?"
